

Salesperson SP004 achieved the highest repeat customer rate, while higher discounts showed limited impact on revenue growth.

Dubai Mall remained the top-performing store by revenue, while repeat customers contributed significantly to overall sales performance. Premium product categories demonstrated stronger customer retention trends

Gross profit margins remained stable despite higher discount activity, while premium product categories continued contributing stronger profitability across stores.

